

The world in my shopping bag

Worksheet B

Underline the correct word in each sentence.

1. There are a number of ways the coffee producing countries are exploited. One way is through fairground/ unfair profit margins.
2. More than 80 per cent of the profits go to multinational companies and to traders/traitors from developed countries.
3. Developed countries protect their multinational companies from free completion/ competition from developing countries.
4. The US government forced Brazil to abandon its plans to process beans itself by threatening to cut/cup US aid to Brazil.
5. In this way, the huge profits of multinational/multifunctional companies were protected.
6. Over the past 20 years the price of coffee has grown/ groaned steadily.
7. At the same time the price of raw coffee beans actually deepened/ decreased on the world market.
8. This makes it impossible for coffee- producing countries to plan/pick their economies properly.
9. As in colonial time, only a tiny part of the profits/ loss from coffee goes to producers from developing countries.
10. Fair Trade Organization has been trying to improve/ disapprove the situation of local farmers in developing countries.

Adapted from: Geography by Keith Kelly, Macmillan Vocabulary Practice Series.