

Food waste and poverty

Worksheet B

Read the sentences and place them in the correct section below.

1. These are the rich countries of the North.
2. These countries are the poorest in the South.
3. Most South American, North African and East Asian countries are in this group.
4. Most people work in farming or other primary activities.
5. There is very little manufacturing industry and most exports are poorly priced raw materials.
6. Public services, such as schools and hospitals are well-developed in these countries.
7. Public health and education services are generally poor.
8. Some are named 'tiger economies'.
9. Many people suffer from malnutrition and from diseases which accompany it.
10. This group of countries include Mali and Ethiopia.
11. More and more people find employment in manufacturing industry.
12. They control 5 % of the world's trade and use up 80% of the world's resources.

Adapted from: Geography by Keith Kelly, Macmillan Vocabulary Practice Series

Developed countries

Slowly developing countries

Quickly developing countries

