

Thomas Edison

Worksheet B Teacher

1. Thomas Edison was a prolific inventor who held the rights to over 1000 inventions.
2. Alexander Graham Bell received the patent for inventing the telephone.
3. Thomas Edison immersed in his work and encouraged the others to do the same.
4. Instead of working in solitude, Edison worked with his assistants.
5. Charles Batchelor was a colleague of Edison, who helped him developed a filament for the electric light bulb.
6. Edison made innovations to the telephone to make the speaker's voice easier to hear.
7. Edison often resorted to a trial -and -error approach while inventing new things.
8. The special effects used in movies today were not conceivable when Edison invented a motion picture camera.
9. When a device like a telegraph intrigued Edison, he always tried to find ways to improve it.

Prolific, immersed, solitude, trial, colleague, device, motion, innovations, patent.