

Evolution

Worksheet 2

LISTENING GAP FILL EXERCISE

I _____ evolution when I was about ten years old. I remember it clearly. I thought _____. My mind was full of images of strange creatures crawling out of a green, _____. Fish that had somehow developed legs and the ability to _____. Then these creatures turned into all kinds of animals. All the books I read said we _____. Scientists are still not sure how. There's _____. When I think about it now, _____ evolution is a clever concept. The man who thought of it, Charles Darwin, said nature is all about the survival _____. Only the strongest _____. We are still evolving. Scientists believe we will look quite different a million years from now. I _____ look like.

Adapted from: <http://www.listenAminute.com/e/evolution.html>