

Plants

Worksheet 2

LISTENING - GAP FILLING EXERCISE

Parts Of A Flowering Plant

1. All flowering plants have tosystems.
2. The root systemmainly underground.
3. The primary root is thick and large and getsinto branches.
4. The tipoff each root isby a root cap.
5. Let us now move on to learn about the system of a plant.
6. It develops from the plumule and above the ground.
7. The stem is the aerial part on which, leaves, flowers and roots are born.
8. The leaves grow on the stem at points nodes.
9. It's important are storing food material and protection of the seeds against injury.