

TEACHER'S NOTES

1. Australia in the land of great outdoors.
2. Australians have a great appreciation for sunshine.
3. The Cancer Council of Australia have published sun protection guidelines to encourage schools to become sun smart.
4. We experience the highest rate of skin cancer in the world.
5. Two in every three Australians will be diagnosed with skin cancer by the age of 70.
6. Some clouds can actually increase the UV intense on the ground when reflecting the sun rays.
7. The number of solariums have dropped by 45 percent since February 2008.
8. These potential consequences and actions demonstrate the importance of sun protection.
9. Both controlled artificial light and natural light can be harmful.