

TEACHER'S NOTES

1. The Arctic National Wildlife Refuge is a great breathing space on the planet
2. It is a landscape where the native to this region recognize a continuity of life
3. This is a treasure that need protection
4. Regardless what kind of development still gonna affect our way of life and affect the ground and the animals there.
5. At a time when climate change has become a global reality the demands of global conversation never has the protection of the Arctic National Refuge been more essential .
6. This is the open space for democracy.
7. Raw wild beauty is a deeply held American value
8. If we listen to the land we will know what to do