

Digestive system

Worksheet 2

LISTENING - GAP FILLING EXERCISE

1. When you put food into your mouth it's starting a through your digestion system.
2. Some are made up of large molecules.
3. Thisis called digestion.
4. At the same time saliva is
5. When you swallow a of food it is pushed down your throat into your esophagus.
6. Muscles in the bone of the esophagus pushing the food along.
7. To examine the digestive system doctors can give patients a meal.
8. This model shows the typical size and shape of your stomach to your other organs.
9. Gastric juice is acidic and contains the digestive..... pepsin.
10. Once it's been into a liquid it's released into the first part of the small intestine
11. They are small enough to pass through theof the intestine into your blood.
12. This process is called
13. Some can't be broken and absorbed.